Dear General Davidson:

Thank you very much for your letter of 19 May addressed to Mr. Dulles concerning the briefing given by Mr. Robert Amory to the cadets of the United States Military Academy while they were here in Washington.

We appreciate your kind comments about his presentation and it was thoughtful of you to bring this to our attention.

I will forward your letter to Mr. Amory for his information.

Sincerely,

WEST POINT, NEW YORK

19 May 1960

Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I wish to express my appreciation to Mr. Robert Amory for the superior manner in which he conducted a briefing on the Central Intelligence Agency for the group of cadets who visited Washington the end of last month. These cadets, a selected group of thirty-six, were on an educational trip which involved orientations and briefings on our national government and points of interest in Washington.

The reaction of the cadets to this trip was one of great enthusiasm. They were especially appreciative of Mr. Amory's efforts in assisting in the success of the trip.

I would like to add my personal word of thanks.

Sincerely yours,

GARRISON H. DAVIDSON
Lieutenant General, USA
Superintendent
